Join this 12-week virtual course to study and strengthen solidarity with Nicaragua and its popular organizations like the Asociación de Trabajadores del Campo (Rural Workers’ Association), and international movements like La Via Campesina. This course makes available in English for the very first time material from La Via Campesina’s Central American Leadership course. Other courses will be taught from highly experienced internationalists, agroecologists, and organizers.

Class topics include:
- Nicaragua and the Sandinista Revolution
- History and current context of Latin America and US imperialism
- ATC and La Via Campesina peasant organizing / movements
- Food sovereignty and agroecology
- Solidarity and Internationalism

Starting on August 1st, this course will be held every Saturday
9 am - 11 am US PT / 12 pm - 2pm US ET / 5 pm - 7 pm UK / 6 pm - 8pm Central Europe

Apply here https://bit.ly/3el1HCm